Some Men Pay $10,000

For an expert to manage their advertising. There are others who pay $5.00 for an annual subscription to printers' ink and learn what all advertisers are thinking about.
But even these are not the extremes reached. There are men who lose over $100,000 a year by doing neither one. For sample copy send 10c to Printers' Ink, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York City.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

DENTIST.

Dr. C. Clifford Fry, formerly of 1407 28th st. n. w. has removed to 1745 L st. near Connecticut avenue. Our reporter called at Dr. Fry's new establishment and found him occupying very handsome apartments, neatly fitted up and thoroughly equipped with the latest dental appliances. Dr. Fry invites his former patrons and friends to call.

A Tonsorial Palace.

One advantage to be noticed in Burke's new barber shop, at 1400 S street, is that there are plenty of first call barbers always on hand, and your work is done promptly and neatly.

Mr. John H. Wills, who operates The Literary Shop at 506 11th St., N. W., is a unique character. He deals largely in old and rare books and magazines and makes Negro authors a specialty. There is little in the book line that Mr. Wills doesn't know and he keeps his shop heavily stocked all the time. Mr. Wills can fill any kind of an order by mail at a moment's notice.

Hon. J. W. Lyons, the brilliant Georgia National Committeeman has an interview in the Milwaukee Sentinel that is a dignified and complete squelching of the rantings of the blatherkite demagogue Tillman of South Carolina. Mr. Lyons is making a noble fight for his race and the country.—Savannah Tribune.

HERE IT IS.

If you want boarders.

If you have rooms to let.

If you have a house to rent.

If you want to place your business before the people.

If you want big crowd your excursions or picnics.

If you are anything at all—let the public know who you are by Advertising in The Colored American.

RACE GLEANINGS.

Miss Hallie Q. Brown, our famous elocutionist is winning new honors in Texas this spring.

The Boston Enterprise, whose two initial numbers have reached us is a firm exponent of the race's progress in New England.

Editor W. W. Taylor, of Salt Lake City has been appointed Deputy Sheriff and is the first colored man so honored in that state.

A colored resident of Montgomery County, Alabama, has discovered three rich veins of silver on his farm, and is said to have been offered more than $3,000,000 for the land.

Some time since a colored woman was advertised for with the information that a gold mine awaited her in Alaska. The lady was found in the person of Mrs. Eva Timms, of Alexandria, Va. Her good fortune seems to be authentic.

Down in Alabama they have been kidnapping Negroes and selling them to the operators of certain business ventures. Recently a white Justice of the Peace, a Court Bailiff, and several reputable merchants were arrested for this crime.

The American Guide, of Little Rock, Arkansas, is a vigorous race journal which shows excellent taste in reproducing the good things found in The colored American. It is, however obnoxious to the proper criticism that it fails to give us credit.

Miss Floretta Vining has some wise suggestions in The Herald, of Leavenworth, Kansas, on the conduct of our unions. She insists and rightly that parents are too indulgent to their children, and that the impertinence of the youngsters is purely reflective.

The Women's Negro Franchise Association, of New Jersey, has issued a stirring appeal to the colored women of that state for sympathy and financial support in the movement to raise funds to prosecute the suits to test the disfranchisement laws of the southern states.

The beneficial society known as the Sons and Daughters of Bishop Waters, which has had a career of usefulness for years in Philadelphia, Pa., has lately disbanded. It was composed entirely of colored ladies, and the financial report showed the treasury in a healthy condition.

"A Remembrance" is the title of a little volume which has been received fresh from the pen of Mr. M. Grant Lucas, one of our teachers. It is a tribute to late Commissioner Ross, and a number of our school room headlamps. Whatever Mr. Lucas undertakes can be depended upon for thoroughness and good taste.

Prof. W. H. Ferris left town on Wednesday for the Agricultural Experiment station, at Kingston, R. I. He hopes to be a potential factor in the Agricultural Education of the race. Plans are being considered for a summer school in the north this summer, of which the Prof. is to be the head and if practicable they will be made effective during the present season.
